UNIFORM POLICY

- Singlets must be the same base colour for all members of the team with numbers clearly visible on the front and rear of the singlet.
    - Numbers must be clearly visible and:
        - 20cm high on the rear
        - 10cm high on the front
        - At least 2cm wide
        - Teams may only use number 0 & 00 and from 1 to 99
        - Players on the same team shall not wear the same number
    - Taped or handwritten numbers are not permitted.

- Shorts must be the team's base colour or black. The base colour is the shorts colour worn by the most players present at the match.
    - The base colour is the shorts colour worn by the majority of players present. Players in other colours, except black, will be penalised for incorrect uniform.
        - For example, if four players wear red and three wear black, the uniform is compliant; if four wear black and three wear red, the three players in red will be penalised.
    - Leggings and bike shorts are permitted only if they are the same base colour for the whole team.
    - Shorts with pockets, zips, buttons, belts or buckles are not permitted under any circumstances.

- All shoes must have non-marking soles.

- All visible undergarments must be compression material and tight to the skin.
    - Loose undergarments are not permitted under any circumstances.

- Fingernails should not protrude beyond the visible line of the finger, if so, they must be taped or trimmed.

- In the event of a singlet colour clash, the first named team on the fixture will be required to reverse or change their singlets before the match begins.
    - Teams can hire alternate singlets from competition staff.

- As of round 6, incorrect uniform penalties apply, teams without correct uniform will be penalised.
    - Teams will be penalised 5 points per offence
    - Penalties are capped at 10 points per team, per game.
    - Penalties must be applied by the referee or appointed scorer prior to the commencement of the second half.
    - Incorrect uniform penalties apply where a player's uniform is otherwise permitted under this section but does not match the required base colour of the team's uniform.

- A player wearing any item of clothing or accessory that, in the opinion of the referees or competition staff, poses a safety risk will not be permitted to participate in the match until the item is removed.
